Conſtantinople, March 24.

The unuſual Severity of the Froſt, which continued, with very little Interruption, from the latter End of December till the 3d Inſtant, joined to a total Suſpenſion of the Plague for upwards of Thirty Days, induced a Hope that this City and Neighbourhood were at length freed from the Contagion. But it is now apparent that the open moiſt Weather, which commenced the 3d Inſtant, though it laſted only till the 10th, has reproduced that Malady, no leſs than Nine verified Accidents of the Plague having ſince happened in the Greek Village of St. Dimitri, very near Pera: So that there is great Reaſon to apprehend that the Contagion will again ſpread on the Return of warm Weather.
